Delicious Vilnius
Recommended by locals

Vilnius is a curious and open city. Ever since the times of its founder, Gediminas, Vilnius has been known as a capital of people of all nationalities and religions, as well as their customs and cuisines. Today we are richer than ever with flavors from around the entire world.

Without going anywhere too far, you can taste cuisines from around the world. Vilnius – from Portugal, Persia, and Japan to Caribbean, Mexican, and Ukrainian. Vilnius is not only multicultural, it’s also open-minded, which means vegetarians, vegans, families with children, and people with furry friends will find all amazing eateries and places.

This guide features a total of 50 local gastronomic gems, but there are unlimitedly many more wonderful places worth visiting. The collection is based on the recommendations of Vilnius foodies of different ages, professors, and students. It will help you answer the perennial question, “Where should we eat?”
